

Bring forth the I Am That I Am that is within you . . .

I Am That I Am because of the Great I AM.

You are looking for sustenance and there it is. It resides within you. All power, all strength, all goodness lies within. You may say "No, that is not possible" and yet it is the way of all things.

Deep within lies the seed of perfection and there you may find sustenance and all the beauty of living within that holy grail. It lies deep within you. It is the pearl of all existence. It is the gem in the crown of Being.

How deeply is it hidden? Search and you will find it. It is only as deep as you think it is, hidden in the depths, perhaps, but more closely bound to you than you know. Seek an open heart and there will you find the pearl of all existence, luminous, glowing, forever beaming its hope that need only be secured by you.

Reach for it but do not grasp it, for it will grasp you. It will shake your foundations. And there in the core of your being shall you find Peace, Love and the Light that sustains you.

There is no finer Love than this. It is the Mount of Olives, rich in diversity, overpowering in Love. Search your heart for the sustenance you need. Therein lies the joy that you seek, the sustenance you wish to behold, the outpouring of light that makes us all One.

Seek and you shall know truly what pearls of wisdom we have to offer, for there shall you speak with me and all of the heavenly realm, and you shall not go astray for you shall then behold the truth.

Take this journey deep within your heart of hearts. Engage in the lessons it will teach you. Then spring forward in the Love you cannot understand – the Love that sustains you, now and forever.

In the light of Love, we are all One. Therein lies your strength. Therein lies your Being. Therein lies all Wisdom and Understanding. Therein lies the Eternal Truth.

Bring forth the I AM THAT I AM that is within you, and Peace shall dawn upon you and upon the Earth that you grace with your Being.

May peace and peace and peace be everywhere and always with you.

I am White Eagle.

Bless you, my child. Bless you.
So be it.
