

Claim Your Divinity

I am White Eagle.

The beauty of it all is in every word you say, every word you whisper, every thought you think, every love you feel, every rapture that entralls you. The wings of love that take you higher and higher. There is the beauty of it all — where you can dwell amidst the glory of it all. High above the fray that keeps you grounded in turmoil.

Remember who you are. That in you which is immortal still lives no matter what is going on down below. You have family and friends that you keep close to your heart and in that closeness there is a kinship that unites you one with another. There is rapture in all that love.

It is like a cocoon of love, of loving kindness that coddles you all your life. Sink yourself into that feeling, into the love that surrounds you. Sink every part of yourself into that sense of well-being, for there you do truly dwell and there we dwell among you. You think this fantasy, yet we tell you, it is your greatest hope and your highest reality.

For we come before you in all our glory to tell you — you are one of us and we are all One. You think there is some separation between you and the earth, but that is not so. The earth is your true grounding point, the crystalline core of all your being grounded into the crystalline core of the earth.

There, there is Beauty and Light and Love beyond your imagining. Absorb it in your whole being. Wander in the fields of glory — the lap of Love, the beauty of the Infinite that lies before you and dwells within you.

The magical source of Love is within you. It bubbles out of you to touch all those you know and love. Therefore, love everyone and touch them with this Divine madness — the madness of Love that magically transforms all it touches.

Let Love see you through. There is no other way for Love is the Light and the Light is the Love that surrounds us all. Be at peace with all you meet. Let Love show you the way. For in each step is the newness of life, the magic of Love, the realm of Divine ecstasy. Know in your heart, this to be true.

We are all One. Claim your divinity.
So be it. Amen.
