

God is a sensation

I am White Eagle.

God is a sensation — a sensation of overwhelming Love that penetrates every fiber of your being. So thorough is this sensation that you are swept up into a new world of being until you are dissolved wholly in Love.

The love that you feel now only hints at the Love that surrounds you always. For that Love is of the Great Cosmos — the Cosmic Consciousness, the enfolding Love that creates all. Your entire being is wrapped in this velvety sensation of Love.

And only you can open the door to perceive this Love. It is with you always. It surrounds you like a cushion or a cloud of soft loveliness.

It embodies you as much as you embody it. Every atom of your being vibrates with this Love-liness, with the beauty of this Holy Light, and so it is throughout the Cosmos. Every being vibrates with Light, embraced by Love, and emboldened by the Heart of God that seethes through every cell, warms every heart and vibrates to the rhythm of the Universe.

All this is greater than you can ever know. Yet deep within your heart of hearts is the seed of all knowledge, the seed of all Love that penetrates every fiber of your being and every atom of the Universe.

Love it is that moves all things. It animates the Universe. It speaks to you deep within. Every part of you breathes this Love – so fully are you immersed in this magnificent sensation. There is no greater peace than knowing this Love. Seek it and it is yours forever. Whether you seek it or not, it IS.

Allow your consciousness to absorb a great sensation of Love Everlasting. Let your Being vibrate with Love.

Let nothing deter you. All is Love. The ALL is Love. And all within you is Love. Love sings out of your heart and encompasses the breath of life and swirls it into the Cosmos of Everlasting Creation. There is no beginning; there is no end. All is within you.

The ALL remains wholly within you. Revere the sacred sensation of Love. Bathe in it — Morning, Noon and Night.

Know you are Love and in that Love you are Light. You have seen the Light. The Light Everlasting is yours. It is enfolded in Love — that overwhelming sensation of Love that moves all things with no beginning and no end.

Walk into the Love. Love will sustain you. And be forever absorbed in the Cosmic Love of Light.

So be it.

All is well and all is well and all is well. And peace be with you now and forever.

So be it.
