

In That Beauty My Eye Rests

I have my eye set on the beautiful and in that beauty, my eye rests.

I am White Eagle.

Nothing in the Universe exceeds the beauty of the Earth. You may scan the heavens for as long and as far and as deep as you like, but you will never find the beauty that is the Earth.

You think the Earth glows because of the Sun. Well, it does, but the Earth has a beauty all its own. The glow comes from within the deeper center of the Earth. Think about it – everything on the planet glows. Each has its own aura. Each is alive.

The energy you see is just a small part of the energy that is deeply hidden. Beneath what is physical is the invisible glow of the Life Energy.

If you do not think this is so, take my hand and walk with me a while. And you will see beyond the physical beauty of the Earth, into the Cosmic beauty of all dimensions. There you shall imagine the true beauty of the Earth. There in your imagination you will see all that is come to be beautiful. Why are you afraid to look, to see, what beauty is there? Are you afraid you will destroy it? That humanity in all its lack of wisdom will undo what the Cosmos has created? No, there is no way.

The creation of the Cosmos is perfect and so the Earth is perfect and everything upon it is perfect. Though appearances may be otherwise, the truth is — All is Beautiful and All is Perfect! YOU are perfect! Underneath it all, YOU are perfect!

And as you recognize your own perfection, you will see the perfection of others and the perfection of everything upon this planet. All Love is revealed. All the Light that shines from that Love, lights up the heavens with this Blue Orb!

There is so much, so very much to see and to know within your Being — the truth of the perfection, the truth of the beauty that is within you and within One and All — for We Are All One.

The Cosmic Plan is perfect. You cannot improve on that, nor can you destroy it. So you think the wobble of the Earth is an accident? Of course not!

And while humanity wobbles its way through the Earth, it, too, will reach perfection. Ah yes, “the beauty of the earth fixes my eye in solitude.” And so it does! That solitude is important. Therein shall you see the true beauty of the Earth and all within it.

There is so much to behold. So much to take in. So much to expand your heart. Take my hand. Walk with me. Let us see this magical beauty together and you will know the truth, the reality of your Being, the incredible beauty of the Universe and all that is in it. For we are All One and in that Oneness is the greatest beauty you will ever behold.

Remember this each time you see a leaf. Remember. I am here with you.

We are all One. Let beauty surround you and glow within you and May You Shine for all the world to see! With Peace and Comfort and Love, the Light of Your Being is a Flame for all the World to follow.

Lighten up! Light up! Be who you are! Be Joyful and Know that All is Well with you and the All — for We Are All One and in that Oneness is a beautiful peace and a kindness of heart that lives forever. For we are All One and in that Oneness we are whole.

Bless you, my child, bless you.

So be it. Amen. I am White Eagle. Aum.
