

Unlike any transformation the Earth has ever seen

I am White Eagle.

Say this to my people.

We are in the midst of transformation unlike any transformation the Earth has ever seen. There is no guide for this transformation for it is being created as we go along. There is no template because there is no precedent. You are setting the precedent.

You who are currently upon the Earth in physical form are setting the pace and the temper of the new life that is dawning within you. There is no future beyond that which you are creating at this very moment.

Only the present moment is alive with possibilities and in those possibilities you must now dwell more fully than ever before for there you will create that which is to come, that which is to be, for another Age yet to unfold.

Harmony, convergence of set vibrations bring together a world of possibilities far beyond your current imagining and yet you are imagining what the future will be.

The power of love to overcome all obstacles is now in its glory for the future must be met in the vision with joy and confidence and loving imagination. There can be no fear or doubt or worry to block your fondest imaginings. Nothing but the greatest possibilities are before you.

Approach with wonder and awe and loving attention to each new development as it unfolds before you and within you. Look within to the magic door that opens you to all possibilities, that brings you to the feet of God, that showers you with Light, the Light of all Creation that shines forth within you – the very substance of which you are made, which indeed fulfills all Creation.

The magic of wondrous things unfolds before you – worlds yet unknown, worlds yet unfilled. Dreams to spangle the heavens with new stars, with new life, with new possibilities – all lies before you, unfolding as if in some great parade, some star-spangled vision of heavenly delights, of simple pleasures, of greatest imaginings.

Let these worlds unfold before you and within you, for you shall surely see the Light and know, too, the possibilities that are within to create the world yet to be imagined.

Light the wick of your imaginings. Let the candle within glow white hot with infinite desire for that which is holy, for that which is perfect, for that which is Divine. Seek to know the Oneness that unifies all things and from which all things are created. Let nothing stand in your way of the highest and broadest imaginings.

Let the nobility of your soul shine forth, creating a new Earth resplendent in the Light, glowing with possibilities of your imaginings.

Imagine Love all around you, filling you with glowing Light, that you may be a lamp held high for all who know you so that they can follow the Light and know too the Light that shines within.

Gleam on! The brightness that is your own soul burning forth. Yes, you are Light! We are all Light! God is Light! We are the Light! Let it shine! Let it shine! Let it shine!

Stay with the Light. Hold onto the Light. Never lose sight of the Light. It will lead the way.

Hold high the torch for others to follow. The Light within is inextinguishable. Let it Glow! Let it Burn. Let it Create – a new eternity for that which you know as the Earth and all the creatures therein, all the life it holds.

Bring forth and create with bold imaginings of the highest vibration so shall you be transformed and so shall the Earth know a new life.

Watch carefully. Watch for the changing of the Guardians of the Light. Recognize new faces, new energies, new vibrations. Welcome them into your hearts. Understand the wisdom that they bring.

Follow. Follow the Light. Follow the Light. Follow the Light.

Bless you, my child. We are all One. Bless you!
Amen.
