

YOU ARE THE LIGHT!

Dear Ones,

Nature plants many seeds without human intervention. And those seeds will be nurtured by the earth and grow to bless the Earth in numerous ways.

You seem shaken by what you have done—what you have created, that has yet to unfold. Fear is gripping every heart as we awaken to the new year.

What lies ahead, you must not fear, for there are many ways to nurture a seed that is planted. You may help it grow in ways it did not think it possible. You can shape its stature by the love you give it, by the light that shines upon it, by the waters with which you nurture it.

Many seeds surround each seed that is planted and all influence each other. They can make it rain, they can bid the sun to shine, they can crowd each other out, they can wilt in too much light. They can be sustained in the dark only when they are planted, but when they begin to grow, they need the Light.

The Light makes all things new. Shine your Light upon what you call the “bad seed”. And it shall grow in a way you would not have imagined. Show it the Way of Light and it WILL turn. For the Light is all powerful. It will command the seed to grow in the Way of Light. It will bring the seed to fruition in ways it never could have imagined.

Hold the Light. Be the Light.

The darkness in which it was planted shall not overcome the Light.

This seed is your choice. You have chosen to face that which you fear most. Hold, then, the Light.

The darkness will recede in the Light, so hold, then, the Light. Hold it steady, be steadfast. The Light is at YOUR command.

The Light is the One and All. The Light is in us all. The Light is all-powerful, all good, all Love, all hope, all passion. All BEING.

Acknowledge your fear, but then dismiss it with the Light that is in you. For you ARE the Light and the Light is all Powerful. We are all One in the Light and the Light is everlasting. Let the Light SHINE! Speak nothing but the Light. Let your love for the Light overcome all obstacles. Let Love and Light prevail. You are the Light. Allow your Light to shine for all the world to see. For the Light is in you and in All—one and all.

You are the Light. The Light conquers all! Be the Light. Manifest the Light! See the Light in every seed that’s planted for in each seed lies the light of Love and Life. We are all One.

Do not let the Light fail. Take heart! YOU ARE THE LIGHT! The HOPE of humanity resides in the Light. And YOU are the Light—each and every one.

Rise! Rise to take up your Light and beam it abroad for all to see, for this day the Light of Hope, the Light of Love, shines bright and all the world is aflame with Light! The New Age has come.

You are the Light! Let the Light Shine! YOU ARE THE LIGHT!
Bless you, dear ones. Shine Bright! You are the Light! So be it.

Michael
