

This Magnificent Dream of Light!

I am White Eagle.

Think of all that you have been taught by the great Masters you have known in this life and all of your lives before — those who are on the planet at the moment and those who have passed on. They crowd around you, eager to be heard, eager to support you, eager to tell you who you truly are. They rejoice when you connect with All That Is though it be unseen to the human eye, yet — it is all around you. It is there — the true reality that you seek. The spirit that forms your wake, yet precedes you in all things.

Take a moment to understand who you really are. Remember that deep inner wave that moves you, that turns your heart around, that pushes away all that is whirling in the world around you.

Imagine! A clean slate! In which nothing is written; where everything is possible. It is glowing and the Light is shining upon it, but it is shining through it. Take a moment to see through that mirror. The other side is glorious filled with joyous motion and color, dancing, dancing in the Light — a kaleidoscope of pure joyous energy dancing in the Light.

The mirror reflects YOU, don't you see? Look into the Light, look into that mirror and see beyond it into the dancing, joyous Light. That's YOU! That's where you come from. That's who you are. That's where you are in reality, in Truth, in Spirit. We are All there! We are All One in this magnificent dream of Light! Dancing joyously! Beaming with Light! Overflowing with Love!

Holding hands, dancing, celebrating. We are ALL ONE and in that Oneness, we are Whole, we are Light, we are Love, we are all the colors you can imagine, dancing, dancing in the Light.

That is your legacy. Your legacy is Light. Your promise is Light with Love and Compassion. Your path is Light. YOU ARE THE LIGHT!

Can you not see how brilliant you are? How absolutely radiant? Filled with all the colors of the rainbow and dancing, dancing like the pebbles of sand in the light.

You are an Ocean of Love. Walk into that ocean with a steady heart. It is before you, it is in you, it surrounds you — It is YOU — an Ocean of Love!

Refresh yourself. And remember truly who you are.

Take my hand. Walk with me. You are deeply loved. Love is in your heart. Compassion. We are all One. Hold out your hands and know the truth — You are the Light. We are the Light. We are All One.

Let there be grace upon you and peace — the peace that you so dearly love. Take my hand! Walk with me a while. Feel that connection to the Light. For we are All One.

And so it is!

I am White Eagle.

Bless you my child, bless you.

Amen. Aum. So be it.
