

What is the Way?

What is The Way, White Eagle?

I am White Eagle.

The Way is more beautiful than you can imagine. The Way is the Way of Light, shimmering, golden Light — that is the Way!

Where does the Way take me?

To realms unknown, far beyond the human mind, the reach of the human mind.

Stand ready at the gate and ask to go in, to walk the Way that is ahead, to see the Truth, to know the Truth, to be the Truth — that is the Way.

All the world knows the Way. It is before you. You need only follow the Light within you, the impulse of compassion and love and it will lead you forward as ever on the Way. The Way is your path. The Way is where you belong. YOU ARE THE WAY!

You are the Way, the Truth and the Life.

You are everyone, for we are All One. Not one human being is barred from the Way. We are all on the Way.

The Light shines before you. That Light shines from within you and beams across the path that is yours to follow. Watch with me and you will see how easy it really is to follow the path, the Way — to understand the Way, to be the Way, to know the Way. You are the Way!

Heed the Light before you. Yield to its impulse, for the impulse of Love is arrayed with Light and the Light is always before you. Compassion moves your heart. Love guides the way and Light, ever Light, is with you all the Way.

Be awakened. See the Light. It is yours to claim. It is YOU. YOU are the Light. You are the Love everlasting.

Light and Love have created you. Love sustains you and the Light is ever before you.

Believe in the Light. Yield to the Light. Let the Light speak to you. YOU are the Light and there you shall find the Truth within you — always and forever in the Light. You are the Way and the Truth and the Life because you are the Light that sustains all things.

Rest easy in the Light. Follow your path. Be on your Way! The Way is broad and beautiful and you are on the Way.

Bless you, my child, bless you.

I am White Eagle.

So be it.

Amen. Aum.
