

Love Is!

I am White Eagle.

Love will not see you through if you do not acknowledge its presence. Love is the only answer. And until you understand that, you are wandering in the dark.

There are so many ways in which Love nurtures you. We cannot begin to describe them all. Love is in every pore of your Being and every aspect of your life and every thought that you give and even in every bit of pain that you may suffer.

Love overrides all else. You cannot begin to see how beautiful Love is until you are absolutely certain of its presence. And yet, it surrounds you always. There is no way you can escape its presence, for it is there for your own calling. Love is planted so deeply within you, you do not even acknowledge it, you do not even know it's there. But if you quiet yourself, breathe deeply, allow yourself to soar into the depths of who you are — there you will find the blinding light of Love.

Nurture yourself. Nurture one another. But above all, acknowledge and know deeply that you are truly loved. The Love Divine within you will never fail. It does not falter. How can it falter when it is deep within you, when it is deep within every sentient Being, when it is the very force of Creation, the very Life of Life, the very Heart of your Soul — the mystery of all Creation.

Love saddles you with Hope, with Belief, with Understanding and yes, too, with Wisdom. The higher and higher you go, the deeper you can sink into the Love Divine. The Great I Am Presence absorbs all things, sees all things, believes all things, knows all things. You are one with the Divine I Am Presence. You are one with the Source of all Love, the flowing waters of the incredible bounty of Love. You are one with the Universe. The Universe is one with you and all that you are and all that you ever have and will be.

We are All One. And the Love that you find deep within you is the Love that transforms all the Earth and all that is upon it. It signals the end of trouble, the end of suffering and of pain. It is the holiness within you. It is that which makes you whole, which brings you into the Divine Presence. LOVE! LOVE Is All There Is. It is All That Is. Love creates ribbons of light of all colors, shapes and forms. Ribbons of Light in which you are clothed and in which you are bound forever to Eternal Life, to Love that seeks all, that moves all, that creates all, that Is All.

Seek not to cry for lack of Love, for Love is all around you. Love is in you. Love is between you. Love is everywhere. Love is what you are made of. Love simply is and is the arc of all Creation that can never founder, never sink, never fail to buoy you up upon the waves of Divine Infinitude, the waves of Love that bear you forth, that lift you up, that bring you to a realization of who you truly are—for you are dearly loved, for you are one among us all and we are all One.

There is no greater satisfaction than to dig deep into this Love, this incredible gift, the soaring soul of Heaven in which you dwell, one and all, now and forever. And always acknowledge the Love within you, acknowledge the Love that you are, acknowledge the Love that IS — for we are all Love and we are all One.

Bless you, my child, bless you.

So be it.

Amen.

Aum.
