

Well-springs of the Waters of Life

I am that I am, the Archangel Michael, servant of Almighty God. I speak in the name of Allah, the merciful and the benevolent, the One Being within all.

We have spoken to you before about being oases and you have heard of the waters, the waters that flow forth from the Earth. But then there are the Waters of Life that flow forth from you.

You are each effervescent, artesian well-springs of the Waters of Life. You bring forth new life and make the deserts turn green and bloom. . . .

You are each a fount of Divine Luminous Effulgence.

Know this is Truth and not symbolism. You are actually that – that which is eternal, whole, perfect in every way.

Do not heed any voice of limitation, any voice that says you are less than. Heed not the voices of duality and separation, of division, of war and testaments. It is for you to be the oasis in the desert – the desert of this life – but this life will not be a desert in time to come, but a garden.

We ask you to pray specifically for the Tigris and Euphrates and the old lands of Persia tonight as they presently need your prayers. There are many there calling out to God in little hovels and little houses. They give their whole being unto God. No one knows and no one sees them but there are many, many, many who live there who are the lovers and friends of God.

Unite with them in your prayers and give them strength and be strengthened in the Universal Oneness that is the true message of Almighty God.

“Love ye one another as I have loved you,” it was said but this does not pertain to only those close and near to you but those who also dwell afar – even unto other planets and stars. The beings of this universe are magnificent and manifold. Amen.
